Rained-Out Independence Day Parade Rescheduled

Bill Utter Ford – Lake Cities’ Independence Day parade rescheduled for Saturday, September 4th at 9 AM.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Lake Dallas, Texas – The Lake Cities’ Independence Day Parade rained-out on July 3rd has been rescheduled for Labor Day weekend – Saturday, September 4th at 9 AM. Bill Utter Ford in Denton is sponsoring cash prizes including a grand prize of $500 to the best entry overall, $200 for runner-up and $100 for each division winner in ‘float’, ‘vehicle’ and ‘walking/marching/horse’.

“I told my wife Rose, ‘It does not rain on my parade’ -- but it did!” said Frank Moore, the parade’s Grand Marshal who already has his calendar marked for September 4th.

“The consensus is for the Labor Day weekend. We are going to move forward with planning the parade and welcome new additions,” said Earl Berner, Lake Dallas city manager.

The parade line-up will be at the west parking lot of the Lake Dallas Middle School adjacent to City Park on Hundley Drive. Parade participants with current entries will receive updated information – new entries are welcome. A sign-up form is posted on the ‘Special Events’ link at www.lakedallas.com – updates closer to the parade date will also be available on the city website. For more information please contact Julie Chapman at 940-497-2226 x132.
