

All solicitors, or door-to-door sales professionals, are required to first submit a permit application for review. A few additional requirements must be met, which are outlined below:

- Who Needs a Solicitors Permit?
 - Anybody soliciting business or selling directly food, produce, pottery, art, wares, services, merchandise, photographs, newspapers or magazines.
 - A license is required for anyone soliciting business or selling the above items from a motor vehicle or trailer parked in a single location on private or public property, or door-to-door. Section 78-51.

- How Can One Apply for a Solicitors Permit?
 - Email permits@lakedallas.com, or call 940-497-2226 ext. 402.

- Additional Requirements
 - It is unlawful to make door-to-door solicitations before 9AM or after 6PM. Section 78-51.
 - All applications must be accompanied by a bond in the penal sum of $1,000 as surety authorizing business in the state.
 - Soliciting cannot be done toward customers at another place of business or public facility without first receiving permission from the owner or manager of said establishment. Section 78-83.
 - Soliciting cannot be done within 25 feet of an ATM, bank, self-service car wash, pay phone, fuel pump, or public transportation stop. Section 78-84.

- Fees
 - Set by the City of Lake Dallas' Master Fee Schedule for either 30 days or 1 year from the date a license was issued. Section 78-56.
 - Each person engaging in business is required to pay fees according to the City's Master Fee Schedule.
 - The City's Master Fee Schedule can be found here.
